

ABOUT NOTTING HILL

Multiple worlds collide on the lively streets of this iconic neighbourhood. Known for its turbulent history as much as its picturesque avenues, Notting Hill's diverse cultural scene stems from a rich musical and political heritage. The swinging sixties saw the city's bohemian set flocking here, not least for the infamous Carnival, a celebration of Caribbean tradition jam-packed with steel bands, reggae and jerk chicken. Artists, writers and style icons can be spotted outside Portobello's striking townhouses.
