ABOUT SHOREDITCH

Over the last decade, London's East End has transformed from run-down backwater – exclusively the preserve of starving artists – into the epicentre of all that's hipster and creative in the capital. If it's cool, you'll find it here first. As poster boy for London's relentless rejuvenation, Shoreditch is restless with youthful energy; witness unusual concept boutiques, exciting restaurants and pioneering tech start-ups jostling for space in the concrete jungle. Shoreditch may have swapped some of the grime for glamour, but beneath the 'glossy' surface lies a world hopping with creativity.

TOP FIVE SHOREDITCH HIT LIST

1 GO ON A STREET ART TOUR In Shoreditch, art is an open-air affair. From huge murals on buildings to tiny stickers you'll spot everywhere, the streets are fair game. Who knows, you might even spot a new Banksy.

2 EAT A CURRY ON BRICK LANE The heart of London's Bangladeshi community, Brick Lane is famous for its many curry joints. Pick up a chicken biryani for an edifying stop while in the area.

3 HIT THE MARKETS Markets are the life blood of East London – rummage through antiques and vintage clothes at Spitalfields, spot up-and-coming designers at Brick Lane, and get your fill of flowers at Columbia Road.

4 GO FOR A BIKE RIDE East London residents are the capital's most avid cyclists so make like a local and hop on a bike. When it comes to seeing Shoreditch, two wheels most definitely beat four, without a doubt.

5 FOLLOW THE RIPPER TRAIL Spitalfields was the location for many of the murders committed by London's most notorious killer. Take a gory trip down memory lane with a historical Jack the Ripper walk. Not spooky enough? Try a night-time tour.

HANDY HINTS FOR TRAVELLERS

EXTENDED VISIT?
Consider a pay-as-you-go SIM to keep phone charges to a minimum.

GO CONTACTLESS
Whether travelling by train, tube or bus, use your contactless payment card for the cheapest fares.

TRAVEL SMART
Pre-book a licensed minicab instead of hailing a black cab and paying top whack.
